Project #291: Mother's Day Handprints!

- On a plain piece of paper, copy the phraser below.
- Paint your child's hand with non toxic liquid paint and help them place their hand onto the paper.
- Try doing both hands.
- If your child does not like paint on the hand, maybe try tracing the child's hand.
- If not, maybe just try some light fingerprints...
- Children can add their own drawings, stickers, or other things like sequins, tissue flowers etc.
- Cut out some flowers from magazines and glue them onto the card is another idea.
- Sparkles onto the wet paint look nice as well.

Activity:

Look for tiny hand prints in your home. They could be on the walls, mirrors, cupboards. Marvel at them! Then you may want to wipe them with your child!
